FLOOR DEBATE

March 18, 2004 LB 1089

Nelson got...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, (inaudible).

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. All right. Just so I know. But the $104 million transfer, even though that number is similar to the Forecasting Board's projection reduction, that is not...that's just a coincidence?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, it is because we, in our original proposal before the revenue day...or forecast day, we had proposed using $23 million at that point.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. And I think it's a fair characterization to say that transfers from the Cash Reserve into the General Fund are done in lieu of cuts. We could...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: At this point, yes.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. Okay. You know, my sense of this is I...thank you so very much, Senator Wehrbein. My sense of this, as we move along, is that we should keep the Cash Reserve Fund as whole as possible. We have kind of made a decision as a Revenue Committee that we were not going to raise revenue right now to pay for the hazardous waste judgment, so it seems to make sense we should keep the Cash Reserve Fund as whole as possible. To do that, though, we need to make...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Time.

SENATOR BOURNE: ...some other cuts, in my opinion.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senators Bourne and Wehrbein. The next speaker is Senator Tyson.

SENATOR TYSON: Thank you, Madam President. I rise in support of the AM3216, and I certainly hope that I have injured anybody's feelings by actually speaking on the subject that's on the board. I feel that Senator Chambers has made a noteworthy and eminently fair proposal as a way of dealing with what is a subject we have already dealt with for several hours on the
